

K-Love provides information of local interest to myself and my family. Christian broadcasting of the quality of K-Love cannot exist without the resources of regional or national funding. It is vital that K-Love be permitted to rebroadcast on local equipment with local input for information and services used by each local community.

Thank you,

John L. King